A CARD.

FELLOW-CITIZENS AND SOLDIERS:

Yielding to the solicitations of friends in Cumberland and Harnett counties, I have consented to serve, if elected, as a member of the House of Commons of the next General Assembly of North Carolina. Confined to Camp life, it will not be in my power to see the people. It may be proper, therefore, to state that, if elected, my influence and votes will be cast in favor of such measures as in my judgment may be best calculated to insure the success of our arms and secure the independence of the South. It will be my constant aim to look always to the comfort and care of my brother soldiers, and I shall support every measure calculated to promote their interest and to encourage and cheer them in their arduous and patriotic service. Sympathizing with the people and soldiers, whatever influence I may have shall be exerted to restrain oppression and guarantee to all just rights and privileges. In the discharge of my Legislative duties, all lawful efforts shall be used to promote the interest and carry out the wishes of my fellow-citizens, believing that a representative, in this capacity, is the public servant of the people and is therefore bound to yield a ready obedience to their instructions and a cheerful compliance with their wishes, in every way consistent with the public good. I have served three years in the army, and if the people now desire me to serve them in another capacity, I will cheerfully comply with their wishes.

JOHN P. McLEAN.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIERS

Throughout the Confederacy

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT,
RAILROAD BUREAU,
RICHMOND, June 20th, 1864.

THE friends and relatives of soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia are hereby notified that an arrangement has this day been effected with the SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY to carry all packages of food and wearing apparel to Richmond, Va.

To secure the advantages thus obtained through their transportation, the following instructions must be observed:

Packages must not contain more than one hundred pounds, be well secured, and plainly marked, "Sent free of charge by the Express to either of the Soldiers' Relief Associations, which are located as follows:

In North Carolina, at Raleigh; in South Carolina, at Columbia; in Georgia, at Augusta; in Alabama, at Montgomery; or at any other point at which one of these Associations have an office.

The Agents of these Associations will then take charge of them, and ship daily, by Southern Express Company, to the proper Agents of the respective States at Richmond, who will see them distributed to the proper individual owners.

To meet the wishes of the soldiers, and to give them a certain and speedy communication with home the Southern Express Company has agreed to give this freight preference over everything else; and in order that no obstacle may occur to the success of so laudable an enterprise, the several Railroad Companies are hereby requested to render the Express Company such facilities as will enable it to make this arrangement a complete success.

As the Southern Express Company assumes all responsibility of the transportation of these packages, the Relief Associations are requested to withdraw their Agents who have heretofore acted as traveling messengers. If the Relief Association will establish agencies in the rear of there armies, they may enjoy the same privileges hereby secured to the Army of Northern Virginia.

F. W. SIMS,
Lieut. Col. and Quartermaster.

Approved.
W. S. Lawton, Quartermaster Gen.

OFFICE SOUTHERN EXPRESS CO.,
AUGUSTA, GA., Feb 29, 1864.

THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY hereby notify the friends and relatives of Soldiers in the Army of Northern Va. and elsewhere, that they are prepared to carry out arrangements as announced in the above card and that they will do all in her power to fulfil its requirements.

CLAIMS

Of Deceased Officers and Soldiers.

WILSON, N. C., June 20th, 1864.

THE UNDERSIGNED has been appointed a Commissioner to investigate, collect and pay over to the parties entitled thereto, all claims for bounty, arrearages of pay and allowances, due to the representatives of deceased officers and soldiers from this State.

The parties entitled are: first, the widow of the deceased, if any, if there be no widow then, secondly, the child or children, if there be such, if there be neither widow or children then, thirdly, the father, if there be neither widow, child, children or father then, fourthly, the mother of the deceased, and in default of all of these then, fifthly, the executor or administrator of the deceased.

The claimant or claimants must furnish his, her or their affidavit, and that of one disinterested witness as to the relationship, and in all cases, where the claimant is not the widow, the affidavit must negative the existence of a claimant or claimants of a higher order. The Justice of the Peace, before whom the affidavit is subscribed must certify to the credibility of the witness, and Clerk of the County Court must certify, under the seal of the Court, that he is a Justice of the Peace.

If the claimant or claimants be a child or children of the deceased, and he, she or they be minors, the claim must be propounded by his, her or their guardian, and the fact of his being guardian must be certified to, under seal of the County Court Clerk.

When the claim is made by an executor or administrator, the fact of the executorship or administratorship must be certified to, under seal by the County Court Clerk.

All of these papers should be sent in duplicate.

Any person directly interested will be furnished, upon application to me, with a proper form of these papers in full; a copy of which, for the greater convenience of parties, will be forwarded as soon as may be practicable to each County Court Clerk.

This commission is intended to facilitate the collection of these claims, and save the claimants all expense.

Parties interested may materially aid me in the investigation of their claims, if at the time of forwarding their papers to me, they will inform me of the date of the death of the deceased, where he died, was killed, whether or not they or any one for them, have received the personal effects which deceased had with him at the time of his death, and whether or not the deceased (if a non-commissioned officer or private,) had ever received the State's bounty.

It is very desirable that all claims should be forwarded at as early a day as may be practicable. In all cases, give the claimants' Post Office and County in full.

JNO. A. STANLY,
Commissioner.

ELECTION RETURNS.

RICHMOND, Aug. 4.—The Herald says the mine at Petersburg was worked by the 48th Pennsylvania, composed mostly of Schuylkill coal miners. The work commenced on the 28th of June, and was done with so much secrecy that the other corps around knew nothing definite about it.

Two hundred and sixty-five public and private buildings were destroyed at Chambersburg. Most of the stocks of merchandize were removed before the rebels arrived. The losses by fire are largely over $1,000,000, and 2,000 people are rendered houseless.

A Lancaster telegram says the raid towards Wheeling was superintended by Breckinridge, while Longstreet is threatening Washington and Early holds the Valley.

ATLANTA, Aug. 4.—Late yesterday afternoon heavy skirmishing occurred at the general line, and continued till after nightfall. Every effort to dislodge our skirmish line was defeated. We still hold our original line. The firing of musketry and artillery is brisk on a portion of the line.

A few prisoners were captured in our front.

The city is vigorously shelled in the meantime. During the night one young lady was killed by a shell.

PETERSBURG, Aug. 4.—This being Lincoln's fasting, humiliation and prayer day, the Yankees have not fired a gun. The enemy are so near in front of Gracies front that pickets on both sides have used hand granades.

Cpt. V. G. B. Girady, Mahone's A. A. G., was yesterday promoted by the President to the temporary rank of Brig. Gen. and assigned to the command of Wright's Georgia Brigade.

RALEIGH, Aug. 4.—The vote at Raleigh is for Vance 348, Holden 307. All the other precincts not in, but it is believed Vance has carried the county, and that the Vance candidates are elected. The following returns have been received:

OLD ABE AND BLONDIN.—The Pittsburg "Commercial," a Republican print, (says the Cincinnati "Enquirer,") states the following incident, which lately occurred at the White House. Some gentlemen were present; excited about things generally, when Old Abe put a sudden stop to their complaining by the recital of the following, Said he:

"Gentlemen, suppose all the property you were worth was in gold, and you had put it in the hands of Blondin, to carry across the Niagara river on a rope, would you ask the cable or keep shouting out to him—Blondin stand up a little straighter. Blondin stoop a little more, go a little faster, lean a little more to the North, lean a little more to the South! No, you would hold your breath as well as your tongue, and keep your hands off until he was safe over. The Government are carrying are carrying an immense weight.—Untold treasurers are in their hands.—They are doing the very best they can.—Don't badger them. Keep silence, and we'll get you safe across.

It will not require much of a shock to knock Old Abe off his balance, and the opposition in his own party seem determined to do it. "If untold treasures are in the hands of the Government, it is quite as safe for the people, judging from the robberies going on, that it should go to the bottom of Niagara river as to be in Abe's hands.

The Election.

We have few returns from the county, and the few we have are not sufficient to show who are the successful candidates. Three are certainly elected, viz., W. B. Wright, for Senator, and J. G. Shepherd and John McCormick, for the Commons. We incline to the belief that Neill McKay will be the successful candidate; if so, the old delegation will return to the Legislature. The vote stands as follows:

Lock's Creek.—Wright 15, McDaniel 19, Shepherd 13, A D McLean 20, McDuffie, 15, McCormick 8, McKay 5.

Fayetteville.—Wright 367, McDaniel 157, A D McLean 212, McNeill 44, Shepherd 270, McKay 242, McDuffie 243, J P McLean 234, McCormick 285, Kirkpatrick 50.

Flea Hill.—A D McLean 28, Shepherd 32, McKay 21, McDuffie 51, J P McLean 16, McCormick 31.

Grey's Creek.—Wright 31, McDaniel 15, A D McLean 15, Shepherd 20, McKay 21, McDuffie 5, J P McLean 30, McCormick 28.

Rock Fish.—A D McLean 52, Shepherd 70, McKay 28, McDuffie 38, J P McLean 22, McCormick 34.

ARMY VOTE.—Wright 90, McDaniel 71, A D McLean 96, McNeill 77, Shepherd 198, McKay 54, McDuffie 88, J P McLean 37, McCormick 53, Kirkpatrick 73.

The following is the vote in Starr's Battery:

For Governor—Vance 109, Holden 00.

For Senate—McDaniel 36.

For Commons—Shepherd 61, A D McLean 26, McDuffie 53, Kirkpatrick 17, McNeill 10, J P McLean 5.

Co. K., 50th Regiment, voted as follows: Senate—McDaniel 42, Wright 5. Commons—Shepherd 38, A D McLean 40, McNeill 35, J P McLean 17, Turner 4, McCormick, 4, McKay 2.

The Governor's election seems to be one-sided. Gov. Vance leaves Holden so far behind that it is a mere matter of form to record the votes. After all, what fuss has been made by Holden for nothing. He has been effectually buried, politically, in this State. The sceptre has departed from him. He would fain forget that he had ever been a candidate, but the people will not forget it—they will remember him during his day, and long after he has departed this life his name and course will have noteriety if not celebrity.

We have the vote in this county, so far as heard from, which is for Vance 685, Holden 65.

It will seen by reference to our telegraphic column that Vance's majority is 22,000 so far.

The next session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, will be held in the town of Warrenton, and will commence on Wednesday preceding the first Lord's day in November.

The Richmond Sentinel of Monday has a very significant "leader" on the "peace question." It calls on the Northern people to force Lincoln to open negotiations—says we are ready and willing to discuss all and every question at issue—and condemns the announcement of ultimata in advance of discussion.

The proposals of the Sentinel, says the Conservative, may be very opportune—this may be the auspicious moment for our Executive to intimate a desire to enter into negotiations. The peace sentiment of the North is becoming rampant, and the article in question, appearing as it does in the accredited organ of President Davis, will stimulate and encourage that sentiment not a little. The Sentinel does not commit itself to anything. It wants peace, and it wants the North and South through their commissioners to meet together on neutral ground and "reason together" on the subject.

The following paragraph contains the proposals of the Sentinel. We will publish the entire article in to-morrows issue.

"Let peace commissioners be appointed by either section, and invested with plenary powers of negotiation, meet on neutral territory and discuss the terms of peace. Let all subject be open to free discussion and negotiation. We of the South consider indepence as the great and first object of the war, and that separation is essential to independence; yet we shall be willing to listen to what you have to say and propose on either side. You may offer us something that will secure our equal rights within the Union. You may propose to give the slaveholding and free States equality of votes in Congress and in the election of President; and partly to effect this, you may throw all New England into one State, or if England won't have her, let her secede. Now, this would be a tempting bait. We don't say it would satisfy us; but the subject is worthy of consideration! This war was brought about by New England and New Englanders, and who knows but that the balance of the States might live in peace and harmony, if she were out of the way.

REMOVED TO MACON.—By request of Gen. Hood, Gov. Brown has removed the headquarters of the Georgia Militia to this city. The object of this change, we learn, is to prevent there being a large number of unarmed men thrown into Atlanta, while that city is besieged, and not perfectly safe. Such being the case, he has, through General Mackall, Chief of Staff, written the following letter to the Govenor requesting the change.

From a proof sheet of the Memphis Appeal we are informed "that the govenor will be able to send forward a large armed force every day from Macon prepared to meet any emergency as soon as they arrive. * * * The assembled thousands of Georgia will, in a few days, be at the front with arms in their hands to reinforce Gen. Hood, and aid in driving the enemy from the State.

Macon Telebraph, July 25.

LOUISVILLE, July 22.—Another installment of fifty Confederate women, from Ga., arrived here to-night. Three hundred and fifty more are reported at Nashville, and will be forwarded here on Thursday next. They are to be sent out of the limits of the United States.

The Autocrat of Russia or Sultan of Turkey, says the Richmond Sentinel, never perpetrated a more inhuman act than the above on hepless women. What is most remarkable, the Poles, whose country women have been torn from their homes, and hole vilages transported to Siberia, are found in the Yankee army, sustaing the perpetrators of such outrages.

We learn from a stockholder of the North Carolina railroad, just returned from the annual meeting of the company at Raleigh, that a resolution was introduced and passed ordering a correspondence to be opened with other railroad companies in the South, for the purpose of concencerting measures to separate railroad companies from the Southern Express companies. In other words, to have all the freight carried over the roads carried on the road account.

HORRIBLE.—On Monday last five Federal soldiers, white men, entered the house of Mr.———, an aged and respectable citizen of this county, who lives 12 miles north of Atlanta, and after expelling the father and mother from their home violated the person of the daughter, an intelligent and beautiful girl, seventeen years of age. The dead body of the girl was found in the house by some of our scouts. Her parents crazed by grief narrated the facts to our scouts.—Memphis Appeal, 20

CROPS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—An intelligent farmer, just from Martin county, North Carolina, informs us that the wheat and oat crops in his section were all that could be desired, that the corn crop will be most abundant in that county and in the counties of Nash and Washington.

PRESIDENTIAL CANVAS AT THE NORTH.—The Presidential canvas at the North has already commenced. The friends of Lincoln and Fremont have entered the list, and the squabble has begun. A large Fremont meeting was held in New York recently. Among the speakers was Dr. Cheever. Here is an extract from his remarks:

How long shall this man Lincoln be a snare to us? Know ye not that the people are destroyed? And the people would be willingly drafted to the last man, if the President would only use the army to sweep the rebellion. But to be drafted by driblets only in season to be lost, while by this folly the rebellion has fattened and has been strengthened, this is agony intolerable. To be massacred by driblets that the continued necessity of war may be an argument for continuing Mr. Lincoln in the Presidency.

Yet it comes to this—President Lincoln steadily opposed the gathering of colored troops, when he might have had hundreds of thousands from the heart of rebeldom; and now, in the fourth year of the rebellion, he is unable for the want of men to meet the ultimate necessity into the jaws of which he has flung his country, having given to the rebels meanwhile the advantage of three million of laborers, leaving the rebellion at leisure to employ its whole white force, and safely to bring every man and boy under conscription. Meanwhile a draft finds us shrinking from it, gold and bread going up, currency and coinage going down, enthusiasm suffocated, patience wearied out, the farmers threatened with loss of harvests for want of laborers, the first necessity of brains, and a leader having given place to the ultimate necessity for men.

Remember, now, that this necessity is only one of Lincoln's indispensables, perhaps the first suit. Remember, if you are drafted you are only putting on one of Lincoln's indispensables—his military breeches.

Dr. Cheever's address was received with repeated and enthusiastic demonstrations of applause.

A letter in the New York World from Indianapolis says:

Our people have, so far, bravely bared their breasts to the shock, and have endured all sorts of privations; have been taxed, not only to more than met their share of the public burdens, but have poured their wealth into the lap of shoddy, and unless they can soon begin to see and feel that they have not made all these sacrifices in vain, they will bolt this Administration. The West, after all, is not so party bound that it is ready to sacrifice all on the partisan altar of fanaticism. Remember the prediction; that unless Mr. Lincoln shall, within the next three months, exhibit a policy that shall produce better results than the past, the West will throw a bomb, filled with worse material than Greek fire, into his vulnerable Presidential magazine, that will remind him of a most serious "little joke."

SOME TIME AGO.—The Hartford (Connecticut) "Times" copies the following advertisement from the Kingston New York "Gazette," of June 14, 1800, upon which it makes the remarks appended:

"FOR SALE.—The one half of a saw mill lying in the town of Rochester.—And also a stout, healthy, active negro wench. Apply to John Shoonmaker, Jr., at Rochester."

And negro men and women were then sold all over the Northern States; and there were slaves in Connecticut as late as 1848. Isn't it now pretty early for us up here to resolve that we are the saints, and all the slave holders, are sinners? That we will whip and subjugate all slaveholders, take away their negroes and occupy the plantation of the masters? That a slaveholder is a sinner, fit only for ——, while we, (that is the 'loyal') are all saints, fit for heaven and happiness, and that slaveholders shall not sit at the communion table with us, nor live in the same Union! This is progression on the part of a class who live upon the money made from the slave trade, slave labor, rum, the war, etc. Why don't the Lord answer more speedily the long prayers of all such loyal folks.—[Hartford Times.

Senator Doolittle said in Congress, 'Slavery, Mr. President, is dying all around us.' To this the Dayton Empire says:

Yes, and Constitutional Liberty is dying; morality public and private, is dying, all that we have prized of peace, of social order, of neighborly kindness, of friendly intercourse in society, is dying. And dying, too, by hundreds of thousands, are the brothers, fathers, sons of this most frenzied, deluded and miserable people. Why did not Mr. Doolittle tell it all while he was about it?

TRYING TO BUY OFF FREMONT.—The New York correspondent of the Chicago Journal says Fremont will be tendered the Union nomination for Governor of the State of New York, with the understanding that he withdraws from the Presidential canvass. The Cincinnati Enquirer does not think that bargain can be made.

[From the Richmond Sentinel.]

GRANT SENDING TROOPS TO WASHINGTON.

We learn, from a gentleman just arrived from the Northern Neck, that the Potomac, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, was covered with transports, carrying troops to Washington City. It is estimated that fully 20,000 soldiers had been sent to Washington by Grant since Early's last victory. He will have use for five times twenty thousand in that quarter before he takes Petersburg.

FROM THE WEST.

Our special army correspondent, and the columns of the United States papers of the 27th ult., furnish us with additional particulars of Gen. Early's movements.

The late Yankee papers show that there is considerable excitement in Washington and Baltimore growing out of the brilliant victory of Gen. Early, and the certain re-invasion of Maryland and Pennsylvania. They have reason to dread the advance of Early into Pennsylvania. The burning of the houses of our people by the orders of Hunter will be fearfully avenged on the citizens of that State.—And this time Washington may not so readily escape.

The New York Herald must certainly have secret emissaries in our midst, for how else could he know that Gen. Johnston at the head of an army of sixty-thousand men was about to fall an avalanche upon the capital of the United States.—An army of sixty-thousand men, added to Early's command, would ensure the fall of Washington and the regeneration of Maryland. The infamous action of the State Constitutional Convention, the robbery of their slaves, and the military despotism under which her people are groaning, has increased the hatred of the inhabitants of Maryland against their oppressors to such a degree that they are ready and eager, the moment there is a prospect of permanent occupation of the State by Confederate troops, to rise and turn upon their oppressors.

Kentucky, too, is preparing a surprise for Lincoln, he little dreams of witnessing; and Missouri is rising, from one end of the State to the other, shouting for vengence.

In the Norwest, the signs of the times are pregnant with movements which tend to the overthrow of New England influence and tyranny, and the just punishment and ruin of those puritenical scoundrels who originated this war, and who are responsible for the torrents of blood which have been shed and the financial ruin now overhanging the Western States.

THE INSECURITY OF WASHINGTON.—The New York Herald has the following editorial:

We find that among army officers, who ought to know something upon the subsubject, the idea is entertained that the late Maryland raid of Early and Breckinridge was but a reconnoissance to ascertain the strength and position of the Northern defences of Washington, and that having accomplished this object to their satisfaction, a more formidable movement in the same direction may be anticipated, and that the administration ought at once to prepare for it.

In support of this opinion we have reason to believe that the removal of General Joe Johnston from his late command in Georgia signified anything but his disgrace. Sherman, Johnston's generalship in his late campaign from Dalton to Atlanta, has been satisfactoy to Jeff Davis, and that he has been removed from the rebel army in that quarter for more important services elsewhere. He is the very man to lead a rebel movement on Washington while Gen. Lee remains at Richmond to attend to Gen. Grant. It was mainly through Johnston's superior strategy in 1861, against Patterson in the Shenandoah Valley, that we lost the first battle of Bull Run. Johnston in that campaign became thoroughly conversant, in a military view, with the Shenandoah Valley and the neighboring country east of the Blue Ridge.

* * * * *

We expect, therefore, soon to hear that this man Johnson has been appointed to an important command in Virginia, and next he will probably be reported as advancing upon the Maryland border with an army, including his Georgia veterans, amounting to fifty or sixty thousand men. Is the administration prepared for such a visit on the track of Early and Breckenridge? This is a question which President Lincoln out to be able to answer; and yet, from all accounts, it appears that Washington is as feebly garrisoned to-day as it was a fortnight ago. General McClellan who has already twice saved the national capital, is the proper man, in the absence of Gen. Grant, to be charged with its protection. Why not? What possible objection at this time could stand in the way of his appointment, we should like to know?

GEN. WHEELER.—A gentleman who recently left Atlanta states that General Wheeler, in a recent engagement, was wounded in one of his legs between the ankle and knee. The wound, though very painful, is not considered dangerous. It is said the General will soon be able to resume his duties.

Mr. Dayton, the American Minister, has been feasting the captain and other officers of the Kearsage. A letter in the Independence Belge says that two days after the defeat of the Alabama an iron-plated vessel built at Borbeaux, left there with a view of succeeding the Alabama, and revenging her destruction;
